Pathway to Special Immigrant Juvenile Status (SIJS) and a Green Card

Applying for SIJS can put you on a path to becoming a lawful permanent resident in the United States and getting your Green Card. But it can be a long and difficult process. While the process may not look the exact same for everyone, these steps are what most youth seeking SIJS will face along the way. Remember that there are people and resources available to help you! Use the QR codes/visit our webpage for more info: https://cilacademy.org/pathway/.

Who's who? You can easily be confused by the different people involved in your immigration case. If you want to learn more about various organizations, check out this chart prepared by CILA.
Pathway to Special Immigrant Juvenile Status (SIJS) and a Green Card

1. Obtain social security number and state identification
2. Receive a decision on deferred action
3. Wait ... Check priority date on the Visa Bulletin
4. Apply for Green Card and comply with any RFE or NOID
5. Receive a decision about your Green Card
6. Finish!